

TONY JONES

Drummer/Vocalist/Composer Tony Jones is a multi-talented musician. He was raised in a musical family: his grandfather was renowned composer Leon René (When it's Sleepytime Down South, When the Swallows Come Back to Capistrano, Rock-in Robin).

Tony is also a master of vocal impersonations. His impersonation of Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong is well known. He is frequently called to do voice-overs and sound-alikes of many icons including Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett, Ray Charles, Elvis Presley and various character voices.

Tony also has a world-famous party band called The Hodads, which has been entertaining people across the globe with their mix of Beach Boys, Classic Rock and Pop favorites.
